YOU ARE NOT alone

A SIX-PART SERIES
ON YOUTH MENTAL HEALTH
FROM KET

You Are Not Alone is a new six-part series from KET featuring people on the front lines of youth mental-health advocacy and issues. The series aims to raise awareness, reduce stigma, and offer solutions.

Topics explored include depression, anxiety, suicide prevention, trauma and toxic stress, stigma, youth advocacy, parental concerns and challenges, the role of schools, and promising strategies within school settings. The halfhour programs air back-to-back on KET for three Mondays, beginning at 9/8 pm.

November 5

"Youth Speak Out"
"Help For Families and Caregivers"

November 12

"Whole Child, Whole School"
"Depression and Anxiety"

November 19

"Trauma and Toxic Stress"
"Suicide Prevention/Teaching Hope"
