

Fan Code of Conduct—Warren County Public Schools

Warren County Public Schools, in association with the Kentucky High School Athletic Association promotes interscholastic events and sportsmanship. Sportsmanship is an essential part of any athletic competition and is expected from, athletes, coaches, officials and fans. As a fan/spectator (student or adult) of Warren County Public Schools we want you to be an example of positive encouragement while supporting our athletes, coaches and officials. Our behavior should be positive, respectful and encouraging of the athletes, coaches, officials and the game.

[NOTE: Due to the nature/severity of the action, school administrators reserve the right to impose the most severe penalty with the first offense if they deem it warranted.]

Failure to be an example of these athletic practices and/or ejection from an athletic contest may result in the following procedures to be taken:

School administrators may hold a discussion with the offender at the site concerning expected behaviors in the future.

The offender may be required to schedule a meeting with the School Principal or designee with resulting action that may include removal from the next two home athletic contests of the same sport.

The offender may be removed from all home athletic contest and other school events and activities for the remainder of the school year of infraction.

The offender may be removed from all home Warren County School District athletic contests and other school events and activities for up to a two year period.

A letter will be sent by the Principal /Athletic Director or School Superintendent to the offender in question notifying them of the consequences [two game, remainder of year, or two year] of their actions.

Any athletic official, including but not limited to, contest officials, athletic director, principal, assistant principals, game site supervisors and anyone else in an administrative role on the site, may uphold enforcement of an ejection.

While the Fan Code of Conduct encompasses behavior expectations and consequences for both student and adult fans, Warren County School administrators may apply further consequences to a student ejected from a contest due to the student violating the Student Handbook.

[NOTE: Due to the nature/severity of the action, school administrators reserve the right to impose the most severe penalty with the first offense if they deem it warranted.]
