Poetry Unit Interactive Notes

What is Imagery?
Word __________ that appeal to the __________.
Example:

What are Sensory Details?
The __________ and ____________ a writer uses to create images.
Example:

What is Tone?
The ______________ portrayed by the ______________ (narrator) in a poem.
Example:

What is Personification?
A figure of speech in which __________ things are given __________ characteristics.
Example:

What is Hyperbole?
An ____________ used for emphasis.
Example:

What is a Simile?
A ________________ between two unlike things using the words __________ or __________.
Example:
What is a Metaphor?
A ____________ between two unlike things in which one thing ______  _________  _________ another thing.
Example:

What is onomatopoeia?
The use of _________________ that ___________________ ___________________.
Example:

What is Alliteration?
The ______________________ of ________________________ sounds at the ___________________ of words that are _________________ together in a single line of poetry.
Example:

What is Rhythm?
The ____________ quality produced by the repetition of __________ and _________ syllables.
Example:

What is Repetition?
___________ a sound, word, or other phrase to create _________, appeal to __________, or emphasize an _________.
Example:

What is Rhyme?
What is Rhyme Scheme?
The __________ of ___________ words in a poem.

Example:

What is End Rhyme?
Rhymes occurring at the ____________ of _____________.

Example:

What is Narrative Poetry?
Poetry that ___________ a ________________.

Example:

What is Stanza?
A group of _____________ in a poem that form a single ____________ like a _________________.

What is Free Verse?
Poetry that has no fixed _____________ or _____________ pattern.

Example: